

Private Social & Golf Clubs

Greater Austin Area

SOCIAL CLUBS

Founder's Room Speakeasy

2001 Robert Dedman Dr. (Inside the Moody Center)

A highly exclusive dark and sophisticated private lounge beneath Moody Center offering premium hospitality and access to every live music event hosted at the venue. With membership intentionally limited, the experience provides unparalleled access to Austin's premier entertainment destination.

Soho House Austin

1011 S Congress Ave., Bldg. 2, Suite 100

A private members club for creatives, entrepreneurs, and cultural tastemakers, Soho House Austin offers spaces to work, dine, connect, and unwind. Amenities include a rooftop pool, restaurant and bar, screening room, wellness programming, member events, and 46 guest rooms, with access to the global Soho House network.

The Headliners Club

221 W 6th St., Suite 2100

The Headliners Club was conceptualized by the Executive Editor of the Austin American-Statesman, Charles E. Green, to mix and mingle writers and their subjects. It occupies the 21st floor of downtown Austin's Chase building. Members enjoy exclusive dining privileges, meeting rooms, a private bar and lounge, wine and spirits tastings, and special events throughout the year.

The Pershing

2415B E 5th St. Unit B

Set in a refurbished 1940s house, The Pershing serves as a gathering place for creatives. The three-story club features a bar and lounge, living room, terrace, restaurant, meeting rooms, courtyard bar, gallery space, shisha den, and cultural programming, with reciprocal access to select private clubs worldwide.

Highbrow Lowbrow Austin

207 Chalmers Ave.

Revelry is the name of the game at this members-only club known for its playful personality and social atmosphere. Originally based in an East Austin compound that blended old-world speakeasy vibes with backyard cookout energy, the club continues to cultivate a unique and lively membership community.

Photo credit: The Pershing

1845
—TITLE—

The Austin Club

110 E 9th St.

The Austin Club is as fancy as it gets. Founded in 1949, The Austin Club describes itself as a "graceful extension of your home," offering exceptional dining, private events, meeting spaces, and banquet facilities in the heart of downtown Austin.

The Malin

1515 E Cesar Chavez St. Suite 100

A refined workspace designed for professionals who value productivity and thoughtful design. Built around an open communal area featuring bespoke oak furnishings, travertine accents, and poured crystal dividers, the space offers a quiet, distraction-free environment with hospitality-driven service, flexible memberships, and day-pass access.

GOLF CLUBS

Austin Country Club

4408 Long Champ Dr.

Founded in 1899, Austin Country Club is one of Texas' most historic private clubs, featuring a Pete Dye-designed championship golf course, tennis courts, swimming pool, fitness center, private marina, and clubhouse dining. The club is also known for its association with legendary golf instructor Harvey Penick and for hosting the WGC-Dell Match Play.

Austin Golf Club (Spicewood)

25400 State Hwy 71 W

One of the Austin area's most exclusive golf clubs, Austin Golf Club offers a nationally acclaimed championship course set amid the Texas Hill Country. The club emphasizes exceptional golf, pristine course conditions, and a private, member-focused atmosphere.

Balcones Country Club

8600 Balcones Club Dr.

Established in 1959, Balcones Country Club features two 18-hole golf courses alongside tennis, swimming, dining, and family-friendly social amenities. The club blends competitive golf with an active community environment.

Barton Creek Country Club

8212 Barton Club Dr.

Nestled in the Texas Hill Country, Barton Creek Country Club offers four championship golf courses, a racquet center, fitness facilities, private dining, swimming, and a full calendar of social events. It is widely regarded as one of Central Texas' premier private clubs.

Driftwood Golf & Ranch Club (Driftwood)

582 Thurman Roberts Way

Set within an 800-acre Hill Country community, Driftwood Golf & Ranch Club features a Tom Fazio-designed championship golf course, luxury amenities, vineyards, dining, and outdoor recreation. The club offers an upscale lifestyle centered around golf and family experiences.

Great Hills Country Club

5914 Lost Horizon Dr.

Known for its challenging 18-hole championship course, Great Hills Country Club offers golf, dining, social events, and family-oriented amenities in a welcoming private club setting.

Indoor National

8127 Mesa Dr. Suite. B200

This exclusive private indoor golf club offers 24/7 access to a self-service facility featuring two state-of-the-art Trackman iO simulator bays, a practice putting green, and the flexibility for members to bring their own food and beverages for a convenient, year-round golf experience.

Loraloma Private Club & Estates (Spicewood)

500 S Paleface Ranch Rd.

Loraloma is a next-generation private club and residential community redefining Hill Country living west of Austin. Amenities include a dramatic cliffside golf course designed by David McLay Kidd, along with luxury wellness, recreation, and member-exclusive experiences.

Onion Creek Club

2510 Onion Creek Pkwy.

One of Texas' oldest country clubs, Onion Creek features two championship 18-hole golf courses, practice facilities, dining, fitness amenities, and a strong tradition of family and social programming.

River Place Country Club

4207 River Place Blvd.

River Place Country Club is centered around a scenic championship golf course known for dramatic elevation changes, water features, and challenging play. Members also enjoy dining, social events, and recreational amenities.

Spanish Oaks Golf Club (Bee Cave)

13001 Spanish Oaks Club Blvd

Situated on more than 1,200 acres in the Texas Hill Country, Spanish Oaks Golf Club features a nationally recognized championship course, extensive practice facilities, dining, fitness amenities, and a luxury private club experience.

The Hills of Lakeway

26 Club Estates Pkwy.

The Hills of Lakeway provides access to four championship golf courses, tennis facilities, swimming pools, fitness amenities, dining, and an active social calendar across its club properties.

Travis Club (Spicewood)

4900 Bee Creek Rd. Suite 204

An emerging private golf and lake lifestyle club overlooking Lake Travis, Travis Club is designed to combine championship golf, waterfront recreation, wellness amenities, dining, and luxury residential offerings.

University of Texas Golf Club

2200 University Club Dr.

This private championship club pairs an award-winning golf course with tennis facilities, resort-style pools, dining, and family-oriented programming. The club is known for its welcoming atmosphere and connection to The University of Texas community.

Westlake Country Club

2612 Lost Creek Blvd.

Formerly Lost Creek Country Club, Westlake Country Club features a renovated golf course, tennis courts, swimming pools, fitness facilities, dining venues, and a family-focused membership experience.

Westwood Country Club

3808 W 35th St.

A private invitation-only athletic and social club known for its tennis, aquatics, fitness, dining, and social programming. While golf is available, the club is best known for its racquet sports and family-friendly atmosphere.

DINNER CLUBS

The Supper Club – Austin Chapter

Various Austin Locations

A private members-only dining club hosting curated dinner parties, cocktail events, and social gatherings at premier venues throughout Austin. Experiences are designed to bring people together through exceptional food, conversation, and hospitality.

1845
—TITLE—